Sam Kekovich to deliver the laughs at VTA Christmas Lunch

Aussie icon, AFL superstar and comedian Sam Kekovich is set to entertain guests with his trademark sense of humour at the Victorian Transport Association's Christmas Lunch, on Friday 2 December.

The annual event is a chance for the freight and logistics industry to come together and celebrate the year's accomplishments, and is one of the most popular days on the VTA's calendar.

This year's lunch, sponsored by MAXITrans, is returning to the MCG; this time taking place in the stunning MCC Members' Dining Room, which features striking panoramic views of the Victorian landmark.

Sharing the entertainment duties with the famed "lambassador" are acoustic duo Sarah Valentine (The Voice) and Gavin Chan, who will provide the day's soundtrack, playing a mix of classics and modern hits. The popular music trivia quiz will also be making a comeback, with tougher questions and bigger prizes than ever.

VTA CEO Peter Anderson says that the Christmas Lunch is the perfect opportunity for the industry to let its hair down and relax after a long year.

"The lunch is always a fantastic, fun-filled afternoon, and a great chance to catch up with friends and colleagues over a drink and delicious meal," Mr Anderson said.

"Fun is never in short supply at the festive feast, and this time around is no different, with plenty of games, giveaways, prizes, music, dancing and laughs to get everyone into the Christmas spirit.

"With a truly first-class line up of entertainment planned for the day, this year's Christmas Lunch is shaping up to be great afternoon, and I'm looking forward to reminiscing with old friends - as well as making some new ones."

Tickets for the VTA Christmas Lunch are now available at www.vta.com.au or by calling the VTA on (03) 9646 8590.
