

The world in which we live is constantly changing. Organisations are challenged with conditions that change at breakneck speed. To succeed in this volatile business environment, leaders frequently undertake strategic initiatives. Unfortunately, too often these initiatives are poorly charted and inadequately executed. The role of a leader in a business is to establish a clear direction and create an environment that empowers the team to achieve the desired goals. This workshop will step you through the skills that are needed to be a successful leader in this challenging environment.

The third in the series of four Master Classes, this strategy planning workshop Leadership Skills is a unique program that allows you to develop your own leadership plan.

Delivered by experienced Mindshop facilitator Barry Jenner, the Leadership Skills workshop provides practical skills to enable you to become a more effective leader.
