Are you prepared for the change in Chain of Responsibility Laws?

You now have a “Primary Duty” and must exercise “Due Diligence” with regard to safe transport activities. As of 1st October, 2018, the National Heavy Vehicle Law aligns with OHS / WHS legislation and it is expected that you adopt a risk management approach and use a Safety Management System to manage heavy vehicle risk.

The Safety Management System (SMS) Workshop will cover:

- What are the changes to the law?
- Why is the law changing?
- What are the safety duties I now have?
- Primary Duty
- Due Diligence
- Prohibited Requests or Contracts
- How should I approach risk management?
- What is an SMS?
- How can I develop an SMS for my business?
- How do I assess risk and manage safety?
- Where can I find the tools I need to start the process?

Workshop outcomes:

- You will leave with the tools, a manual and templates to develop an effective SMS
- You will leave knowing what your responsibilities are under the new laws
- You will leave with a clear understanding of how to manage heavy vehicle safety
- You will also leave with a solid support network through the VTA

Who should attend?

- Transport Company Owners and Executives
- Transport Managers & Supervisors
- Transport Safety and / or Compliance Officers
- Transport Contract Managers
- Training Managers
- Legal representatives
