VTA releases provisional program for State Conference 2022

The Victorian Transport Association has released the provisional program for State Conference 2022, which features all the freight and logistics industry stakeholders that gather for important discussions on the issues confronting operators and suppliers in the context of Attaining Post Pandemic Supply Chain Certainty, the theme for this year's conference.

Among the over 30 presenters confirmed to address delegates are Commonwealth and Victorian roads, transport and freight ministers, and their opposition shadows, senior representatives from key state and national roads, safety and freight authorities, road and rail infrastructure bodies, supplier representatives covering the major prime mover, energy, equipment and technology manufacturers, and others.

Key speakers include:

- Federal Assistant Minister for Road Safety and Freight Transport, Scott Buchholz;
- Victorian Roads and Road Safety Minister, Ben Carroll;
- New South Wales Labor Senator, Tony Sheldon;
- Victorian Shadow Ports and Freight Minister, Roma Britnell;
- NHVR CEO, Sal Petrocetto;
- Australian Industry Standards CEO, Paul Walsh;
- Freight Victoria Executive Director, Praveen Reddy;
- TWU Assistant National Secretary, Nick McIntosh; and others.
